

WDO it!

Online Module

An interactive learning module to introduce new sponsors to the WDO scheme and their responsibilities.

How to WDO it!

To use the online module you need to register with the Legal Aid NSW Learning Management System. You only have to do this once and then you have access to all external courses offered by Legal Aid NSW.

Step 1

Go to the Legal Aid NSW Learning Management System.

Step 2

Click on the SIGN UP up button next to first time users. Complete the form and remember your password. Within 24 hours you will get a confirmation email that your account has been activated.

Step 3

Now you are ready to start the WDO it! module. Go back to Legal Aid NSW Learning Management System and login.

Step 4

Go to the WDO it! module. Click register, complete the form and click submit.

Step 5

Click start course now and follow the links to the module. It takes about 40 minutes to complete.

If you have problems accessing the module please email learning@legalaid.nsw.gov.au.

You can login again at anytime to use the module and the resources.

WDO webinar master class

Legal Aid NSW runs free webinars including the WDO administration master class for sponsors.

Co-presented with State Debt Recovery, the webinar covers administrative and reporting requirements. Designed for new and prospective sponsors, or anyone wanting a refresher.

You can register for webinars on the Legal Aid NSW website at Law webinars for community workers.

Workshops

Workshops are available for new and prospective sponsors and for current sponsors who need a refresher or have new staff.

To request a workshop email WDO@legalaid.nsw.gov.au.

Publications

You can order our fines and WDO publications online at Order a publication.

WDO News

WDO News includes important updates, information and tips for sponsors. It is a joint publication of the Department of Justice, State Debt Recovery, Legal Aid NSW and Aboriginal Legal Service NSW/ACT.

WDO News is emailed to current WDO sponsors and past issues can be found at WDO Newsletters.
